DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNICATIONS

New Delhi, the 14th June 1966

G.S.R. 1014.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Wireless Planning and Coordination, Radio and Cable Board and Monitoring Organisation (Technical Officers and Staff) Recruitment Rules, 1960, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Wireless Planning and Coordination, Radio and Cable Board and Monitoring Organisation (Technical Officers and Staff) Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1966.

2. In the Wireless Planning and Coordination, Radio and Cable Board and Monitoring Organisation (Technical Officers and Staff) Recruitment Rules, 1960, after rule 6, the following rule shall be inserted, namely:—

"7. 50 per cent of the permanent vacancies in all Class I and II posts mentioned in the Schedule to these rules, occurring after the 17th May 1963, and filled by direct recruitment, shall be reserved for graduate Engineers who are commissioned in the Armed Forces on a temporary basis during the present emergency and are later released. Only such of the persons will, however, be entitled to be considered for the reserve vacancies as (a) would have been eligible for recruitment to the Class I and II posts mentioned in the Schedule to these rules had they not joined military service and (b) when being considered for the reserved vacancies are physically fit according to the rules applicable to these posts."

6	Iodochlorohydroxy quinoline, Di-iodohydroxyquinoline and Emetine;	(2) 2 1/2 % of the value calculated after allowing a discount of 25 % on the price specified in the price-list showing the retail price referred to in the said Order:
7	Ethionamide;
8	Penicillin and Streptomycin including Dihydrostreptomycin, in their pure form or as salts or as derivatives or in combinations among themselves or with any other medicine at serial Nos. 1 to 7 above and intended for oral or parenteral use but excluding combinations with any other substance in therapeutic or prophylactic quantities.

Provided that the aforesaid exemption shall be admissible only if the price-list represents the prices at which the medicines are ordinarily sold to retail dealers or consumers, as the case may be:

Provided further that a manufacturer shall, at his option, be allowed to claim exemption under this notification in respect of all the medicines specified above and cleared by him either in relation to the wholesale prices or in relation to the retail prices:

Provided further that when once a manufacturer has exercised such option in any financial year he shall not be entitled to vary that option in that financial year.

Explanation.—In the price specified in the price-lists referred to above, the element of excise duty, if any, added to the price of any of the medicines shall be deducted before allowing the discount.

CENTRAL EXCISES

New Delhi, the 2nd July 1966

G.S.R. 1042.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 6, 12 and 37 of the Central Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (1 of 1944), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Central Excise Rules, 1944, namely:—

- (1) These rules may be called the Central Excise (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 1966.
- (2) They shall come into force at once.
- (3) In the Central Excise Rules, 1944, in Chapter V, after section E.VII, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“E-VIII—Plywood—Special Procedure

96ZA Application to avail of special procedure.—(1) Where a manufacturer who produces coarse grain plywood with the aid of hand presses makes in the proper form an application to the Collector in this behalf, the special provisions contained in this section shall, on such application being granted by the Collector, apply to such manufacturers in substitution of the provisions contained elsewhere than in this section for the period in respect of which the application has been so granted.

(2) Such application shall be made so as to cover a period of not less than six consecutive calendar months, but may be granted for a shorter period in the discretion of the Collector.

(3) If, at any time during such period, the manufacturer does not want to avail himself of the special provisions contained in this section, he shall give a notice in writing to the proper officer of his intention at least one week in advance; and if he fails to give such notice he shall be precluded from availing himself of such provisions for a period of six months from the date of such failure.

(4) If the manufacturer desires to avail himself of the special provisions contained in this section on the expiry of the period for which his application was granted, he shall, a week before such expiry, make an application to the Collector, under sub-rule (1); and on his failure to do so, he shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Collector, be precluded from availing himself of such provisions for a period of six months from the date of such expiry.

96ZB. Discharge of liability for duty on payment of certain sum.—(1) Having regard to the average production of coarse grain plywood, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, fix from time to time a rate per month per hand press employed in the manufacture of such coarse grain plywood, subject to such conditions and limitations as it may think fit to impose; and if a manufacturer whose application has been granted under rule 96ZA pays a sum calculated according to such rate, such payment shall be a full discharge of his liability for the duty leviable on the coarse grain plywood manufactured by him during the period such sum has been paid: Provided that if there is any increase in the rate of duty, such sum shall be recalculated at the increased rates from the date of increase and the liability for duty leviable on the production of such plywood from that date shall not be discharged unless the differential duty is paid.

(2) Such sum shall be tendered by such manufacturer along with such application.

96ZC. Exclusion of certain manufacturers from provisions of Section E-VIII—Nothing contained in this section shall apply to a manufacturer—(i) who employs or had at any time during the year ending on the 1st day of July, 1966 employed more than 5 hand presses for the manufacture of coarse grain plywood; or

(ii) who has not applied for a licence required under rule 174 before the date of commencement of the Central Excise (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 1966.

96ZD. Manufacturer's declaration, accounts and returns.—(1) Such manufacturer shall, at any time, during the calendar month immediately preceding any month in respect of which he has been permitted to avail himself of the provisions of this section, make an application to the proper officer in the proper Form for leave to remove coarse grain plywood from his licensed premises during the latter month, declaring therein the number of hand presses installed and in use.

(2) If such application is not made to the proper officer within the time-limit laid down in sub-rule (1), the manufacturer shall, unless otherwise directed by the Collector, and in exceptional circumstances, be liable to pay duty on his entire production of coarse grain plywood during the month in respect of which the application was to be made at the full rate prescribed in the First Schedule to the Act.

(3) Such manufacturer shall also—

- (a) maintain a daily record of the number of hand presses actually employed by him in the production of coarse grain plywood;
- (b) maintain a true account of the coarse grain plywood produced and cleared by him;
- (c) append to the monthly return required under rule 54 a duly signed statement showing the number of hand presses employed by him for the manufacture of coarse grain plywood during the month to which the return relates.

96ZE. Exemption from certain provisions.—During the period in respect of which any manufacturer has been permitted to avail himself of the provisions of this section, he shall be exempt from the operation of all the provisions of rule 9 [except the third proviso to sub-rule (1) thereof] and rules 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 51A, 52, 52A, 53, 223, 223A, 224, 224A and 229.

96ZF. Penalty for misdeclaration.—A manufacturer who is found to have made an incorrect declaration under sub-rule (1) of rule 96ZD or to have not maintained a true account as prescribed in clause (b) of sub-rule (3) of that rule, or to have committed a breach of any of the conditions specified in notification issued under rule 96ZB shall be liable—

- (i) to pay the difference, if any, between the sum actually tendered by him, and the sum properly payable, within ten days of a demand for such difference being served upon him by the proper officer;
- (ii) to confiscation of part or the whole of the coarse grain plywood, lying in his factory at the time the incorrectness of the declaration or of the accounts is discovered;
- (iii) to be debarred from availing of the special procedure prescribed in this Chapter for a period of six months; and
- (iv) to a penalty not exceeding two thousand rupees.

96ZG. Power to condone failure to apply for special procedure.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the Collector may, at his discretion, and subject to such conditions as he may lay down apply the provisions contained in this section to a manufacturer who has failed to avail himself of the special procedure or to comply with any condition laid down in this section within the prescribed time limit."

[No. 106/66.]

G.S.R. 1043.—In pursuance of rule 96 ZB of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, the Central Government hereby directs that the rate per hand press employed in the manufacture of coarse grain plywood shall be Rs. 90.00 per month.

[No. 107/66.]

G.S.R. 1044.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-rule (1) of rule 8 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, the Central Government hereby rescinds the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) No. 127/62-Central Excises, dated the 13th June, 1962.
